

My God, in Whom I Trust

1. The one who dwells in God a-lone, and ev-er makes the Lord His home,
2. Be-neath His wings I safe-ly hide, se-cre-ly rest-ing at His side.
3. A-mid the dark-ness I still stand up-held by His al-migh-ty hand,
4. So I will cling to Him in love. He sa-tis-fies me from a-bove will know the shel-ter of the throne and con-stant-ly a-bide.

No threat by day, no fear by night, when God's my dwell-ing place.
and an-gels sent at His com-mand will guard me on my way.
with last-ing life, and thus will prove His sav-ing pow'r in me.

So I will sing out to the Lord, "You are my ref-uge ev-er-more, and all my hope is in Your Word, my God in whom I trust."
